Police Foundation Announces Changes to its Board of Directors

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (January 5, 2011) – The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation announced today the appointment of two new members to its Board of Directors.

Charles Gusmano is the Co-Founder and Chief Operating Officer of Southern Waste Systems LLC and its affiliate companies Sun Recycling, Sun Disposal and All Star Toilets. He has over 28 years of leadership experience and expertise in management, strategic planning and facility operations. Charles has a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting from Hofstra University on Long Island and lives in Palm Beach Gardens with his wife and family. His business operations serve customers from Miami to Vero Beach.

Michial Rachaner is a Managing Partner/General Manager at the Bravo | Brio Restaurant Group and has been with BRIO Tuscan Grille at the Gardens Mall since 2001. Originally from Tampa, Fla., he has a Bachelor of Science degree in Hospitality and Restaurant Administration from Missouri State University. Michial has an extensive background of charity work and lives in Palm Beach Gardens with his family.

Commenting on the two new Board members, Foundation President Tom Murphy said: "I am very pleased to have these two gentlemen join our Board. I'm confident that their involvement will help us to continue to grow the Police Foundation as we move into 2011. Both of them have tremendous business experience and involvement in the local community and both are anxious to help us meet the financial challenges that lie ahead."

About the Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation

The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c)3 corporation created to enhance public safety and law enforcement in the Palm Beach Gardens community. Its mission is to provide funding for equipment and innovative Police Department projects, not available from the city's budget, that serve the community, improve communications, and foster excellence in policing.
