Police Foundation Announces Change to its Board of Directors

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL (July 20, 2009) – The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation announced today the appointment of Lynn L. Silber to its Board of Directors and the transition of Chief Stephen J. Stepp to an ex-officio advisory position.

“The Foundation is grateful for the service provided by Chief Stepp,” said Tom Murphy, President of the Foundation. “He has provided leadership and direction since the organization was formed in 2007. We can’t thank him enough for his service and we look forward to his continuing relationship with the board as we move forward.”

Ms. Silber is a Certified Long-Term Care Professional with the John Hancock Financial Network specializing in long-term care insurance, estate planning and annuities. She resides in Frenchman’s Creek where she is the Chairman of the External Affairs Committee. She is a member of the Ethics Committee of “Hospice and Homecare by the Sea”, on the Board of Directors of the Boca Raton Roundtable, and a former member of the City of Palm Beach Gardens’ Community Aesthetics Board. Her appointment is effective July 20, 2009.

About the Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation

The Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation is a non-profit entity holding IRS 501c3 status. Its mission is to provide funding for innovative police department projects, not available from the city’s budget, that serve the community, improve communications, and foster excellence in policing

The Foundation also provides funding for the Palm Beach Gardens Citizen Police Academy, the Palm Beach Gardens Police Explorer Post (an affiliate the Boy Scouts of America), the Palm Beach Gardens “Volunteers in Police Service” (VIPS), and other community involvement activities.
