6th Annual Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation Golf Tournament tees off October 12th

PALM BEACH GARDENS, FL – October 7 is the deadline for registration in the sixth annual Palm Beach Gardens Police Foundation golf tournament.

The four-person scramble, on Saturday, October 12 at the PGA National Resort and Spa will be played on both the Champion Course, home of PGA's Honda Classic and on the Fazio Course, a recent reinvention and modernization of the Haig course. The cost of the tournament is $155 on the Champion course and $130 on the Fazio course and includes breakfast, lunch including a silent auction, 18-holes of golf and a pre-event evening wine and cheese party at Talay Thai in LA Fitness Plaza. Each player will also receive a tournament shirt or wind shirt, and tournament cap on the morning of the event.

Both courses are selling out fast said Tom Murphy, president of the Police Foundation so interested players are encouraged to sign up quickly at golf.pbgpf.org or by calling Sgt. Jack Schnur at (561) 799-4565.

Several levels of sponsorship are still available for this charitable event and most include a complimentary foursome. Opportunities exist for businesses as well as individual sponsors.

Funds raised by the tournament are used for youth related crime prevention programs and to support our local Police Explorer Post which is made up of young men and women, aged 14-21 who have expressed an interest in learning more about careers in the field of law enforcement.
